a collection of three classic books by v s naipaul with an introduction from paul theroux author of the great railway bazaar v s naipaul first visited india in 1962 at twenty nine he returned in 2015 at eighty two the intervening years and visits sparked by an inquisitiveness about a country he had never seen but had been a dream of his since childhood have resulted in three books india an area of darkness a wounded civilization and a million mutinies now india is the collection of all three introduced by fellow traveller and writer paul theroux an area of darkness is v s naipaul s semi autobiographical account at once painful and hilarious but always thoughtful and considered of his first visit to india the land of his forebears from the moment of his inauspicious arrival he experienced a cultural estrangement from the subcontinent india was land of myths an area of darkness closing up behind him as he travelled what emerged was a masterful work of literature that provides a revelation both of india and of himself a displaced person who paradoxically possesses a stronger sense of place than almost anyone india a wounded civilization casts a more analytical eye than before over indian attitudes while recapitulating and further probing the feelings aroused in him by this vast mysterious and agonized country a work of fierce candour and precision it is also a generous description of one man s complicated relationship with the country of his ancestors india a million mutinies now is the fascinating account of naipaul s return journey to india and offers a kaleidoscopic layered travelogue encompassing a wide collage of religions castes and classes at a time when the percolating ideas of freedom threatened to shake loose the old ways the brilliance of the book lies in naipaul s approach to a shifting changing land from a variety of perspectives india a million mutinies now is a truly perceptive work whose insights continue to inform travellers of all generations to india
